

Westbourne Weekly

I'm delighted to confirm that, as of yesterday, 1st October, we are now officially part of the Schoolsworks Academy Trust. Whilst you most likely won't notice anything change immediately on the surface, this means the support we have been given will continue as we continue the great progress we have been making. If you'd like to find out a bit more about the Trust, please see their website: <https://www.schoolsworks.org/> which we will be added to very soon!

We are delighted to invite you all to our Harvest Festivals next Tuesday 6th October. Reception and Key Stage 1 will celebrate Harvest in the school hall, starting at 9am, and Key Stage 2 will celebrate St. John the Baptist's church in Westbourne starting at 11am. We ask for any donations of non-perishable foods to be brought in by the children on the day, which will be combined with other donations at the church and given to the charity UK Harvest.
